SUPERVISOR ROMO WEST REMEMBERS DAYANA GARCIA Invites Public to Fundraising Dance to Aid in Apprehending Her Murderer

(MILWAUKEE) – Milwaukee County Supervisor Peggy Romo West, District 12, and Justice for Dayana will co-host a fundraising dance to celebrate the life of Dayana Garcia Bados at 9 p.m. on Friday, April 5 at The Wherehouse.

Dayana, 24, was murdered on January 3rd, 2012 by her estranged husband, Jose Luis Discua Bados.

“The Garcia family seeks justice for their beloved Dayana,” said Supervisor Romo West. “This event will assist the Garcia family in continuing the search for Dayana’s murderer in the hopes of bringing him to justice.”

“Every day that goes by that he remains free while my sister is no longer with us empowers us to continue to search for him,” said Brenda Garcia, President of Justice for Dayana, “We will continue to look for him until he is brought to justice. Anyone with information on this case is asked to contact the Milwaukee Police Department at 414-935-7360.”
